Troops, Police Club Negroes

Violence Flares Anew In S. African Areas

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Troops and police clubbed hundreds of Negroes in the Cape Town area today who failed to join a native back-to-work movement. Police also staged house-to-house raids and shooting was heard in one township.

An African priest telephoned from Nyanga East native settlement, a center of racial unrest, saying two were killed and three wounded. Later reports from another Negro there said police opened fire and four Africans were wounded.

It appeared Africans were assembled atop a small hill in Nyanga, defying police armored cars. This was where the firing was reported.

Across the country, near Durban, one Negro was killed when police charged scattered demonstrators at Claremont native township. Unrest also continued in other places over wide areas of the troubled country.

The tough police moves apparently were aimed at breaking up the Negro work boycott in Cape Town once and for all. The Negro stay-at-home campaign had hit this big port city hardest of all South Africa's major population centers. The campaign was started two weeks ago to back up a drive against the passes all non-whites must carry.

Authorities waited this morning to see if the Negroes would return to work today. When they realized that most of them had, they moved in on the holdouts still at home.

The raids followed what appeared to be Cape Town's quietest day since the current racial trouble began.

The Chamber of Commerce had reported about 60 per cent of the Negroes back at work and said

Space Vehicle Ban Rejected

Soviets Ask U. S.
To Abandon Bases

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union today rejected any agreement to ban nuclear space vehicles unless the United States simultaneously abandons its overseas bases.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin described a space vehicles ban alone as a one-sided proposal aimed at controlling a sphere where the Soviets have a superiority.

A ban on satellites capable of mass destruction was proposed Friday by U.S. Ambassador Frederick M. Eaton as the first concrete step to a general disarmament agreement. Zorin told a news conference today "Eaton's proposal, of course, cannot be accepted."

Earlier, in a 55-minute session of the 10-nation disarmament conference, the Soviet delegate accused the Western powers of seeking to use disarmament negotiations only to deprive the Soviet Union of its existing military advantages. He claimed the United States was pursuing policies which "have nothing in common with general and complete disarmament."

Zorin's charges tightened the deadlock in the negotiations, which now have entered their fourth week. He said no progress is possible unless the West accepts the Soviet four-year plan for total disarmament as a basis of discussion.

Two Cited After 3-Car Collision

Two drivers were charged as the result of a three car pile-up on Rt. 170 north of East Palestine on Saturday evening.

Lisbon State Highway Patrolmen report the accident occurred at 7:50 p.m. when a car driven by Lewis W. Headley, 35, of East Palestine, was hit in the rear by one driven by Edward E. Curl, 34, also of East Palestine.

Patrolmen said while this accident was being cleared up, a third car driven by Darwin Roller, 56, of East Palestine, hit the Headley auto in the rear. Roller suffered abrasions of the elbows and bruises of the hip.

Both Roller and Curl were charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance, patrolmen said.

Charged with reckless operation as the result of a one-car accident was Carol Sebecic, 18, of Alton, Pa. Patrolmen said she was driver of a car which left Rt. 170 a mile south of East Palestine and hit a barn at the farm of Samuel M. Gorby, RD 2, East Palestine. The accident occurred at 4:45 p.m. Sunday.

Kiwanians, Rotarians Will Hear Speaker

Kiwanians and Rotarians will join for a meeting Thursday noon in the Memorial Building to hear W. G. Dobbs of Cleveland, an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. public relations official who will discuss "Practical Politics, the Art of Being a Good Citizen."

The program was arranged by the League of Women Voters.

William McKay will be program chairman for the joint meeting.

The regular Tuesday meeting of Rotary has been canceled in favor of the Thursday get-together.

FIRE DAMAGES CAR

LISBON — The upholstery of a car owned by Kenneth F. Morris, 816 N. Market St., was damaged Sunday night by fire caused by a cigarette. Morris put out the blaze after a neighbor discovered it.

But Repeats Separate Treaty Demand

Nikita Promises Soviet Cooperation

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union will do "everything for the solution of the question of a German peace treaty on a basis acceptable to the Western powers."

But at a Moscow homecoming rally reporting on his visit to France, Khrushchev once more insisted on signing separate treaties with East and West Germany, a proposal repeatedly rejected by the West.

Khrushchev said the German question had bulked large in his talks with President Charles de Gaulle and he expressed belief those talks had clarified the Soviet position for the French. The Soviet Premier returned Sunday from an 11-day visit to France.

Khrushchev once more lashed out at Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany. He said on his visits to the United States and Japan, Adenauer tried to mobilize "the cold war champions" against a German peace treaty.

Turning to the question of disarmament, the Premier told about 17,000 persons at a French-Soviet friendship rally in the Sports Palace: "As for disarmament, which is the most important question facing the world today, I would say that our (Khrushchev-De Gaulle) opinions coincide."

A final communique in Paris Saturday said both leaders agreed on the need for disarmament. De Gaulle said nothing about Khrushchev's plan for total disarmament within four years, which the French delegation at Geneva has called unrealistic.

Khrushchev conceded there are differences in the positions of France and the Soviet Union on major issues.

"No doubt they resulted in a better understanding," he said of the talks. "On the most important questions we were obviously not always in agreement, but on the most important we came closely together."

(Khrushchev impressed the French people during his visit with an attitude of massive confidence in himself and his country, according to Preston Grover, Associated Press chief of bureau in Moscow, who covered Khrushchev's visit. But Grover reported the French were not overly affected by the Soviet leader's insistence the Soviet Union would make France a safer ally than West Germany.)

Hundreds of Muscovites cheered Khrushchev as he stepped from his IL18 propjet plane at the flag-festooned airport outside Moscow.

Khrushchev and De Gaulle wound up their talks Saturday with a joint communique declaring that disarmament is the "most important problem of our era."

Couched in amiable terms, the statement also touched on the disputed Berlin and German questions.

Khrushchev made clear at a farewell news conference, however, that deep differences still remain on the German issue and indicated once more he might conclude a separate peace treaty with East Germany.

Firemen Fight Grass Blaze Hour and Half

Firemen battled a stubborn grass fire in Salem Heights for more than an hour and a half Saturday, Fire Chief Clarence W. Wright reported.

Firemen were called out at 12:08 p.m. The chief said the blaze was caused by careless burning of rubbish.

At 10:33 p.m. Saturday firemen were called to extinguish a blaze at 776 Southeast Blvd. Firemen could find no trace of a fire when they arrived.

Campaigning Reaches Climax In Wisconsin

State Is Political Sphinx on Eve of Election Tuesday

MILWAUKEE, U. S. (AP)—Campaigning comes to a climax in Wisconsin today and the state is a political sphinx on the eve of its crucial presidential primary election.

Upwards of a million voters, and possibly more, go to the polls Tuesday.

They allocate delegate votes to the nominating conventions of both major political parties. But far more important is the potential psychological effect of the balloting on the outlook for the two Democratic rivals, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota.

Graveyard of Candidates

With good reason, Wisconsin has come to be known as "the graveyard of candidates."

An air of caution pervades Kennedy's camp. His supporters have sharply tempered the exuberant predictions they were making earlier in the campaign.

Vice versa, Humphrey looks and acts more confident than he did a few weeks ago. "I believe we will obtain a majority of the delegates," he said. "And I would consider that a substantial victory."

A recent poll in Wisconsin indicated that Humphrey has gained on Kennedy, although Kennedy is still the front runner.

This seemed to check with findings by two of Kennedy's professional aides.

Findings Edge for Kennedy

One took samplings in Milwaukee Sunday. He said he found an edge for Kennedy. But his tabulation fell well below the two-to-one, or even three-to-one margin Kennedy is supposed to enjoy in the Milwaukee districts.

"What surprised me even more," he said, "was that about 22 per cent said they didn't know. I've never found that many still undecided 48 hours before an election."

The other Kennedy lieutenant, who has been concentrating on labor union voters, said he could not tell how these votes will go. The AFL-CIO leadership in the state is boosting Humphrey.

You hear much less talk today of a Kennedy "grand slam"—that is, that he will get the highest total vote, scoop up the delegates in all 10 congressional districts, and win all the at-large delegates. The total is 30, with the 31 already split between him and Humphrey.

There are two reasons for this eleven-hour uncertainty:

1. No one can say with precision how injecting the religious issue into the campaign will effect either Humphrey or Kennedy. Humphrey is a Protestant and Kennedy is a Roman Catholic.

Anti-Catholic literature was distributed Sunday on the street near

Six Persons Killed As 2 Cars Collide

MOUNTAIN PASS, Calif. (AP)—Two cars collided at high speed on U. S. 91 Sunday and burst into flames, killing at least six persons. The fiery crash snuffed out the lives of a couple and two children in a car from Los Angeles and two young New Yorkers.

The occupants of the California sedan were not immediately identified. It was possible a third child was involved.

From charred papers the two men in a convertible were named as Lawrence Allen Langdon, 22, of Ramonville, N.Y., the driver, and Jerome Paul Berlino, 26, of New York City.

Police said the westbound convertible apparently veered into an eastbound lane and careened head-on into the family sedan.

Man Leaves Dead Women In 2 Hotels

BOSTON (AP)—Police are looking for a man who registered in two Boston hotels over the weekend and left behind a dead woman in each of his rooms.

Police said autopsies showed no signs of injury or violence on either body. Chemical tests were ordered to determine the possibility of poison.

The man registered under the same name at both hotels and gave a fictitious address at Norwood, Mass.

The women were identified as Anna Kennedy, 74, of the South End, and Joan Pelechowicz, 24, of the Roxbury section.

A register showed the man and the Kennedy woman entered the hotel Berkeley in the South End late Thursday. Hotel personnel found her dead on a bed at 3 p.m. Friday.

Several hours later the same man registered at Hotel Broadway, several blocks away, with Mrs. Pelechowicz. Her body was discovered at 12:45 p.m. Saturday. She was identified by her husband, George.

Speed Meter Trips 10 Motorists Here

Seven motorists were fined in Mayor Dean Cranmer's traffic court over the weekend as the result of a crackdown on speeding.

Fined were Aurora M. Centofanti, 36, Youngstown, $10 and costs; Carl J. Hannay, 57, Salem, $10 and costs; Eileen Forkel, 33, Salem, $10 and costs; Anna G. Leeper, 82, Salem, $10 and costs; Thomas J. Scullion, 28, Salem, $10 and costs; J. Ora Taylor, 31, County Line Rd., Salem, $10 and costs and Herman Kuyper, 42, Lisbon, $15 and costs. Mayor Cranmer said he has three other speeding cases pending. The mayor noted that a speed meter is being used in the crackdown.

John Morris 25, Salem, forfeited a $10 bond on a charge of reckless operation.

Fined $10 and costs on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance was Cloyd Hahn, 59, RD 2, Salem. Hahn was charged after his car ran into the rear of one driven by Joseph J. Lukanus, 45, of 1000 Prospect St., police said. Lukanus stopped to pick up passengers on Pershing St. just west of S. Lincoln Ave. when the collision occurred. Time of the mishap was 5:39 p.m. Saturday.

Teacher Has 2 Families 8 Miles Apart

LEE, Mass. (AP)—For seven months high school teacher Joseph R. Dischino, an admitted bigamist, kept two wives and four children in homes eight miles apart.

The secret double life of the respected civics instructor, exposed through an anonymous tip sent to Police Chief William R. Obanheim of Stockbridge, stunned this western Massachusetts community and cost Dischino his job.

The wives also were stunned, Obanheim said.

In Lee District Court Saturday, Dischino pleaded guilty to bigamy and was held in $700 bail for disposition Wednesday.

Dischino, 15 years on the high school faculty, is 37, short, dark and stocky, he is a mild mannered man who wears glasses.

Obanheim said Dischino divided his nights between the two homes and used a part-time job at a South Lee resort to explain his absences.

The teacher married the first Mrs. Dischino, Mary, 15 years ago at Wellesley. They had three children ranging in age from 3 1/2 to 9.

The second wife, Obanheim said, was Margaret Burnhop of Waterbury, Conn., whom Dischino married July 28, 1958 at Elkton, Md. She remained in Connecticut until after a child was born last September, the chief said.

Then she moved to Stockbridge, adjoining Lee, where the first Mrs. Dischino resides.

Besides civics, he was an assistant basketball coach at Lee High School.

David Walker, two-and-a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle C. Walker of New Waterford, suffered first and second degree burns of the face, arms and hands in a mishap at his home Sunday evening.

Mr. Walker had cleaned a paint brush, after which the boy started to play with it. The brush ignited when it got close to a gas heater. He is reported in fair condition at Salem City Hospital.

Levee Break Inundates Over 30,000 Acres

National Guardsmen,
Convicts Sent Into Battle Against River

By The Associated Press
Workers striving to hold back the levee-bursting Mississippi River called for help today along the Illinois and Missouri shores.

A levee break about 25 miles north of Quincy near Meyer, Ill., early in the day sent water surging across 30,000 acres of farm land. National Guardsmen and college students and other volunteers had labored around the clock in an effort to hold the wall there.

Appeal For Help

Flood fighters appealed for help in the Gregory Landing Levee area on the Missouri side near the Iowa border. The Mississippi reached the top of the levee protecting 20,000 acres there and only the sandbag topping held back the icy waters.

The Gregory Landing volunteers included some Quincy College students and numbered 250 in all. "They're hollering for help there," said Sheriff C. F. Milligan of Clark County, Mo.

More than 300 Missouri convicts were sent into the flood battle along the Missouri River. Most of them were assigned to sandbagging details near Cedar City.

Eighty-eight National Guardsmen rolled out of Hannibal, Mo., to fill duty in the Canton-Alexandria, Mo., sector.

Almost all the 450 residents left Alexandria and about 300 moved from their homes in Canton.

The Mississippi edged up past 24 feet in Quincy, 6 feet above technical flood stage and one of the highest levels ever recorded. But the city of 42,000 is on high ground and no major trouble is expected there.

Skies were clearing in the Midwestern flood zone.

But moderate to heavy rain in southern Alabama and northern Florida sent rivers over their sides.

Other rivers and streams in a half dozen other Midwest states were causing trouble after more than a week of flooding, but the worst appeared over in hard-hit Nebraska.

Thousands Are Homeless

The spring floods which also have hit Wisconsin, Kansas, Iowa, Michigan and South Dakota have driven thousands from their homes. The American Red Cross said 28,000 persons have been affected by the overflows. Damage

Space Chief Sees No Need For 'Czar'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's civilian space chief said today he has had no difficulty in reaching the President and obtaining decisions.

Therefore, there is no need for a space czar, T. Keith Glennan told the House Space Committee. Glennan is head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

"It must be assumed by those who advocate the creation of such an office (space czar) in the White House that the President cannot, because of his multiple duties, give the nation's space activities the attention they deserve," Glennan said.

The House group is hearing views on amendments to the space law of 1958. Glennan, who all along has opposed unification of the civilian and military space programs, urged passage of a proposed streamlining measure which he said would fill the need for simplicity of organization and clarification of responsibilities.

Quick Rights Action Pushed

Battle on Measure Entering 8th Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Party leaders hoped today to bring to an early end the long Senate battle over civil rights legislation, now going into its eighth week.

Numerous amendments, proposed by senators in opposing sides, remain to be disposed of, but a leadership push was on to speed action so the Senate can turn to other measures.

One major roadblock was cleared Friday with the adoption of a compromise for a disputed amendment recommended by the Senate Judiciary Committee. It eliminated a proposed requirement for public hearings by court-appointed voting referees named to protect Negro voting rights.

All of the other committee amendments had previously been written into the House-passed bill with little controversy.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) indicated he thought action on the bill might have been completed Saturday if the Senate had not recessed for the weekend.

Johnson counseled the Senate to take the bill as it now stands. He said that if it were loaded down with amendments unacceptable to the House, "we shall not have a law on the statute books."

Although no decision has been reached, there were strong indications that Southern senators opposing the bill would not filibuster to prevent its passage unless further major changes were made.

Under the bill, once a pattern of racial discrimination had been found in an area, either U.S. district judges or referees appointed by them could enroll Negro applicants for registration.

TWO CARS DERAILED
WELLINGTON, Ohio (AP)—Two cars of a 95-car eastbound New York Central freight train were derailed south of here Sunday night. No one was injured, but mainline tracks in both directions were blocked. The Southwest Limited from St. Louis and the Ohio State Limited from Cincinnati to New York were rerouted over Baltimore & Ohio tracks.

The NYC had a bigger derailment an hour earlier at Dunkirk, N. Y. 38 cars of a 122-car freight from Youngstown to Buffalo. Two cars toppled on six parked automobiles and squashed them. Traffic was rerouted on the Nickel Plate Road and the Michigan Central.

FIRE DAMAGE IS $30,000
CLEVELAND (AP)—Damage was estimated at $30,000 after a fire in the kitchen of the Westwood Country Club in suburban Rocky River. The kitchen had just been remodeled at a cost of $125,000, a club official said.

The blaze broke out Sunday shortly after the first meal in the newly refurbished quarters. Fire Chief Charles R. Duggan blamed an overheated oven. About 130 persons attending a father-daughter breakfast and an entertainment afterward by a magician left the building in an orderly manner.

Amazing Facilities Aid Education of Blind

A teacher in a rural school inquires about educational facilities for an ambitious pupil recently blinded in a hunting accident.

Two amazing facilities are available to students and others who have lost the power of sight. By making application to the Talking Book Program of the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., qualified applicants will receive without charge one of the 50,000 Talking Book machines that play records at speeds of 33 1/3 and 16 2/3 revolutions per minute.

WITH THE MACHINE the applicant will receive a catalogue listing a wide selection of recordings of books of a general or recreational nature, varying from Biblical readings by prominent actors and actresses to nursery rhymes.

Chosen records are mailed, when available, just like books from a circulating library. Labels on records are printed in Braille and ordinary script, thus assisting the listener to learn to read by sense of touch.

In conjunction with the government project, a private organization called Recordings for the Blind has prepared a supplementary list of educational and text books, also available to qualified applicants without charge.

Supported entirely by voluntary contributions, RFB occupies headquarters at 121 East 58 St., New York City 22, N.Y., and distributes its records through 14 units scattered throughout the country.

RECENTLY RFB has added to its facilities recordings of the News of the Week in Review from each Sunday edition of the New York Times.

A nominal charge of $5 annually is made to blind students for this remarkable service, made possible also through the generous corps of readers headed by Walter Cronkite whose voice is familiar to listeners of newscasts over the CBS network.

The success of this heart-warming co-operation was attested recently when President Eisenhower presented awards to four blind students who graduated from their respective colleges with outstanding records.

"WHAT CAN YOU tell me about sarcoidosis?" For years, physicians have been puzzled by a disease called sarcoidosis.

The usual victim was a Negro who developed bumps over face and arms and swelling of the mumps gland and the lymph nodes all over the body.

When these glands were examined under the microscope, they resembled the glands of a malignant growth so the disturbance was called sarcoidosis which means "like a malignant tumor."

Fortunately for the patient, the disease didn't behave like a malignancy since few sufferers were very sick and deaths were rare.

Then, since the microscopic appearance also suggested tuberculosis, it was thought best to regard the patient as a potential infected person and give anti-tuberculous treatment.

Recently the pieces in the puzzle seemed to come together like those in a jig saw picture. Drs. Cummings and Hudgins discovered a pine tree pollen that looked a little like the tubercle bacillus and that, when injected into experimental animals, produced bumps that looked like malignant sarcomas.

Since most of those with the disease lived in homes built of wood from the pine tree whose pollen was being investigated, all the theories about race, malignancy and tuberculosis could be thrown out the window.

And, to provide the happiest of endings, the bumps could be made to shrink by skillful use of hormones under strict medical supervision.

INJURED BY HAMMER
DOVER, Ohio (AP)—Raymond Mills, 25, of Dover was in fair condition at Mercy Hospital in Canton today, his skull fractured by a hammer allegedly wielded by Vernon Spera, 29, of Canton. Dover police said Spera has been charged with assault and battery and released on bond. They quoted Spera as saying he struck Mills early Sunday outside a Dover restaurant because of remarks directed at Spera's wife by a group of three men, including Mills.

Missing Papers on Ohio Canals Found

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Anyone who has recovered some long forgotten object while rummaging in an attic can appreciate the feeling of the state library staff. Librarian Walter Brahm said about 600 papers—many valuable to historians who have ehad considerable difficulty piecing together the history of the Ohio canals—have been found. It happened this way, he said:

A visitor was doing some research involving the papers of Dan Emmett of Mount Vernon, who wrote "Dixie," he noted that some other papers, having no connection with Emmett, were in the collection.

Study revealed that they are the letters and other papers of Micajah Williams, one-time Ohio canal land commissioner and member of the Legislature more than a century ago. His son donated the papers, which cover the 1830's, at the turn of the century.

"They apparently just got mislaid, and none of us succeeding librarians knew they existed," Brahm said. "We're still inventorying them, but we feel they will shed light on a part of Ohio's history that has been somewhat in the dark."

Squeezed for Space? Try These Hints for Storage

When space is tight, much shelf space can be saved by storing next season's garments, bedding or draperies in luggage.

Luggage purchased during the last five years often can be nested, one case inside another, so that a whole set of cases takes up no more than the largest piece. Careful attention should be paid to the metal portions which may rust and stain the lining of the next case. Be certain that every case is completely dry to avoid mildew or rust stains.

If it is at all possible, suitcases should be stored in the same position in which they are carried. If they must be stacked, only the hardsided cases should be at the bottom of the pile.

In the attic or basement, double up by storing other items inside cases where necessary.

The biggest hazard in attic or cellar storage is mildew. Home economists recommend that items be kept away from all contact with floors, walls or ceilings in areas that are not finished off for living space.

One excellent method, where no shelves are available, is to support a plank on two blocks of wood or bricks. Cartons and luggage, with a small "breathing space" between each, are arranged on the plank for maximum circulation of air. The plank need not be as wide as the items it will carry.

Suitcases should be kept open to prevent musty odors from collecting inside. But where space does not permit this, they may be stored closed with a small bag of dehumidifying chemicals tucked inside to absorb the moisture.

In the reverse situation when excessive dryness is the problem, shallow dishes which present a large evaporating surface may be kept filled with water to restore a normal balance.

These should be placed in the area where the greatest number of items are kept, and checked every few weeks. Homes heated with hot air, unless the furnace is equipped with a moisture control, have a dry atmosphere during the heating season.

Keep stored items as far away as possible from radiators and heating units.

Old Washday Rules Go Down Drain

Modern home laundry methods are floating old wives' tales away with the daily dirt and grime.

There are many things Grandmother used to say about getting the family clothes clean and fresh, and keeping them that way.

For example, she used to say that boiling was necessary to get clothes clean. Now experts say the only clothes and linens that should be boiled are those that need disinfecting. For ordinary laundry, modern soaps and detergents are so efficient at removing dirt and grime, that the old-fashioned boiling process—so troublesome and so damaging to fabric—is unnecessary.

She used to say that water had to be piping hot to get clothes clean. Now experts say clothes can be fresh and sparkling even after a cold water sudsing. New automatic washers feature short-cycle cold-water laundering methods for many of the fabrics woven or knit of manmade fibers.

Frequent washing chases dirt before it has the opportunity to become embedded in the fibers. Those fabrics that can be damaged by hot water should be laundered often to avoid the need for high temperatures to chase the grime.

She used to say that clothes should be soaked overnight to remove the dirt. Now, thanks to modern soaps and detergents, soaking is considered optional. Overall, work clothes, and other heavily soiled items may be soaked before being placed in the machine. But a half an hour in soap or detergent suds is usually adequate for loosening the dirt.

An effective pre-treatment that often makes soaking unnecessary is to massage a thick solution of soap or detergent lather into embedded soil areas with fingers or a brush.

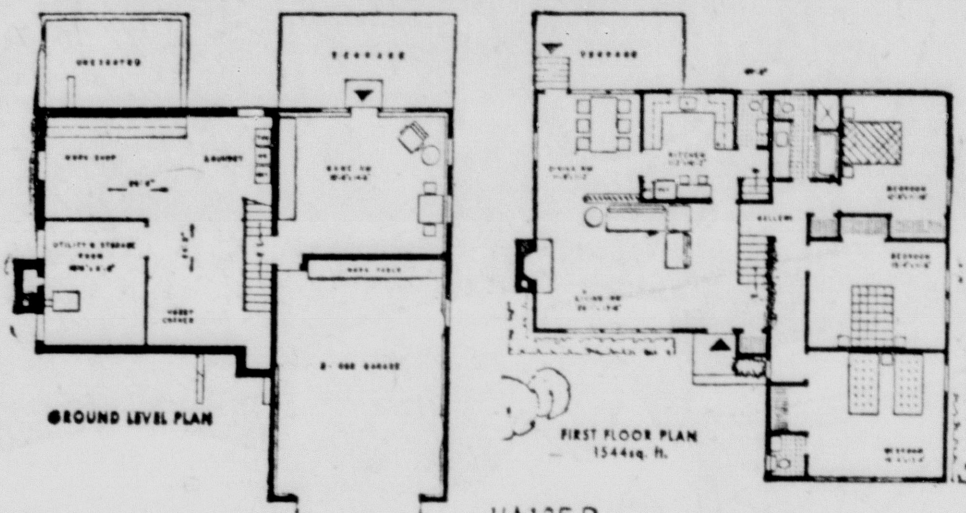

She used to say that laundry would never come clean in hard water. Now there are cleanliness products on the market that make even this old-time wash-day bugaboo passe. Through research, homemakers in hard water areas can enjoy clotheslines full of garments and linens as free of dinginess as those on soft water communities.

Styling Has Caught Up With TV

Female decorating taste has finally triumphed in the "boxy" world of TV and stereo consoles. And it's a big enough victory for you to now envision this delightful situation: sitting down calmly and planning to include these units in your living room decor with absolute confidence.

A new furniture fashion approach has been introduced with a gracious sweeping bow to the American female. You can now actually shop for a television or stereophonic high-fidelity console in any size or price range and never bother with anything that isn't the same furniture styling you have in your home. Indications are that this realistic approach will be standard within a very short time.

What Westinghouse has done is to introduce four complete lines of television and stereophonic high fidelity consoles in each of the classic four furniture period groupings—American contemporary; Custom Traditional; Imperial Provincial; and Early American. Every console in each on up, has authentic period cabinet styling with careful attention to every possible detail. They were all styled for Westinghouse by well-known furniture designer, J. Gordon Perlmutter.

Adding to the furniture authenticity, the cabinets are being produced by various furniture manufacturers who each specialize in one of the four periods. This represents quite a change from the system of offering one unstylish cabinet in nothing more than different finishes to supposedly blend with your decorating scheme.

No more cold shivers now at decorating time. No more worries about fitting those "boxes" into the room in the least objectionable way. No more shuffling your home entertainment units, which have come to play such a vital role in the family life, out of the room where you can best enjoy them. The new furniture fashion approach enables you to put them there with perfect decorating harmony.

dows are of various sizes and scattered all over, bright-colored shutters will only emphasize this jumbled appearance. It is much better to paint the shutters the same color as the house. The conceals the lack of uniformity. If you prefer to have contrasting colors, it's a good idea to remove the shutters from the smaller and more irregular windows and paint the window trim the same color as the rest of the house. Then you can use bright colors on the remaining larger window shutters which will attract the eye to them and camouflage the others.

A chimney that is too small and weak-looking for its house will look larger and stronger when painted the same color as the rest of the house. This same color technique will also correct an overlarge chimney.

If your house seems to fall for its width, you can lower its appearance by painting the roof a darker shade. Painting the upper floor shutters this same deep color will also help make the house seem lower and wider.

Another clever color trick is to paint the front door a bright color that will compliment or harmonize with the remainder of the exterior decor. A bright colored door looks most inviting and welcoming to your neighbors and visitors.

There's also the question of climate to be considered when choosing your exterior colors. White and pastels—especially the blue family—are cool-looking and best suited to warmer climates. For cooler, windy areas barn reds and sunny yellows are good color choices.

When watering house plants, water is apt to run through the soil too quickly, failing to soak it thoroughly. A better method is to place ice cubes on the edge of the soil and let them melt slowly.

Follow Simple Rules When Planning Modern Kitchen

Nowadays when we think about kitchen planning, we no longer take slide rule in hand and consult the tables of measurements to see how many cubic inches of space of a specific shape are needed for the appliances, utensils and paraphernalia of the average kitchen.

The "science" of kitchen planning, says Nancy Nema, electric range industry home economist, is no longer bound by the hard and fast rules of a decade ago.

Every homemaker has her own ideas about the type of kitchen arrangement which will prove most suitable for her. If she adds to these ideas the few firm dogmas and don'ts that the experts continue to apply, her kitchen will be truly modern. It will be handsome, efficient and convenient, and it will suit its user's personality.

Planning the modern kitchen

Ironing Cabinet As Build-In Is Handy

Space used wisely is one of the keys to comfort in a home, whether it's large or small. Something new in ironing equipment which meet this requirement is the "Hand-Press" electric home ironing unit, a compact cabinet to be either built-in or mounted on the wall in any room of the house.

It contains a fold-away ironing board, and, if you wish, an iron in a heat-resistant folder. When the automatic timer is set, the current goes on, then goes off at the end of the time cycle. When the iron is placed in the holder, and the cabinet door shut, the power is immediately cut off.

This always-available ironing center is ideal for touching up freshly laundered household accessories which don't require "heavy duty" ironing.

An old powder puff can serve as a useful hat-holder. First wash it in warm suds and rinse. Then dry and glue it to the top of a small standing hat rack to provide a secure base for any hat.

often starts with choosing the range. The electric range is cool while in operation, keeping the cook and the kitchen comfortable. Heavy insulation keeps outer surfaces cool and permits installation flush against wall and cabinets.

Cleaning the electric range is a cinch, walls, ceiling and so forth need less frequent cleaning because there's no soot to soil them.

The rules of kitchen planning are few, but of prime importance. Do provide the maximum amount of well-lighted continuous counter space. Don't feel you must start your plan with your sink under the window; put it anywhere. It is not necessary to put your range against the outside wall. The electric range does not need venting, because it does not throw heat into the kitchen, and installations are made easy, anywhere in the room since wire for the connections is all that's involved.

Do include provision for sit-down work space, with comfortable leg room, within reach of the sink. Do select cabinets and shelves carefully to keep things near place of use. Do remember that "open" storage is practical and decorative. Not everything must be hidden behind cupboard doors. Don't line all the walls with cabinets. Figure out just what you need and where.

In general, figure on three centers of operation. The refrigerator center should include ample storage space for food supplies, counter space, cabinets above and below. The sink center, with dishwasher and dish-storage units, is ideally located between the refrigerator and the range.

The range center should be closest to the dining area, but do be sure to plan some counter space on both sides.

Hardest Job Is To Be Specific

Constantly Changing Factors Affect Weather Forecasts

By CARL W. LAMM

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Have you ever walked down the street on a clear sunny day with an umbrella tucked neatly under your arm just because the weatherman said it would rain that day?

Have you ever listened patiently to the radio on the day you planned your big picnic, waiting for an encouraging weather forecast? Then, after having received the forecast of clear skies, gone happily to your picnic site only to have the clouds darken and rumble and spew forth tons of water just as you're about to dig into the stuffed basket?

Almost everyone has faced such a situation, and almost everyone has patiently gritted his teeth and mumbled something about the weatherman's predictions.

But few stop to think of the mountainous pile of information a forecaster must scan to make one of these forecasts. At the same time the weatherman is compiling his data, the conditions from which his information came may have changed, so that his carefully planned forecast is wrong.

Most people work with tangible objects—things they can see and feel—but the weather forecaster must work with things he cannot see and cannot physically touch. His business world is made up of gasses, winds, air pressure and theories on how these things should work—but sometimes do not.

Howard Kenny, chief meteorologist at Port Columbus Airport says: "If we could be general in our forecast, like saying whether it will be warmer or colder, or whether it will be wet or dry, we could forecast correctly 90 - 95 per cent of the time. But when we have to be specific and say when, where and how much, our percentage drops drastically."

Asked if there would be any improvements of forecasts in the future, Kenny said:

"As time goes on and rocket exploration information is collected and recorded, we may find out many things that we never knew before.

At the present time we send radiosondes—balloons carrying radio equipment which records upper atmospheric data and relays it back—aloft twice a day. And these are relatively small measurements because they do not take into consideration the effects of influencing factors from outer space.

With small rockets shot 200-300 miles into space, or with a larger orbiting weather observer we could receive these outer atmospheric conditions.

"Take the case of rain," he continued. "There are a number of theories on what causes rain, but there is no answer to why one cloud will produce rain and another one, just like it, will not."

"Every rain cloud is filled with droplets of water that contain either positive or negative electron charges. It is my theory that radiation from the sun and other sources from outer space affect the charges of these droplets of water which might directly influence rainfall.

"At present we know that in some clouds these droplets will collide and stick together adding enough weight to the droplet to make it fall to earth. In other clouds this collision will not occur and there is no rain. I feel radiation may play a large part in the reason for this, but at the present time there is no way to prove it because there are no measurements of outer space radiation."

Kenny said if radiation theories were proved it would then be possible to predict more accurately such things as showers and the reason they occur in one place but not in another a mile away.

He said any kind of forecasting is difficult because things "that will affect the weather tomorrow are not even in existence today."

A weather forecaster can establish certain rules for himself, Kenny said, and live by them, or he can be flexible. But neither system can insure accuracy.

History, or patterns of weather that have occurred in the past, enter into forecasting much too strongly today, he said. Many times a forecaster will look at a weather map and say: "These are the same conditions that existed a year ago when we had the big storm," and then he will predict another storm. This is something "we have to get away from," Kenny said.

Kenny believes one of the hardest jobs for a forecaster is to be specific.

"It is practically impossible," he said, "to say it will rain in Columbus, beginning, at say, 10 p. m. with rain amounting to two inches, and at the same time saying the rain will not reach Athens, until 11 p. m. There are just too many factors involved at the present time to be that accurate. Until our measuring devices are expanded to include more of these factors and until we know more about whether we will have to remain general in our forecasts."

Flooding and flood conditions have become a big job to the weatherman.

"More and more we are responsible for predicting when and where it will flood," Kenny said. "Naturally, the problem is in control and not predicting. We can estimate quite accurately how much a river will rise from the amount of rain that falls. In the spring we take measurements of the amount of snow in certain areas that we know, when melted, will add so much water to a river."

"But that's all we can do. The rest is up to the people. We can't prevent floods, we can only predict them."

BILLS

Do your bills seem to be getting bigger and bigger? Are we to be the victims of soaring inflation? Or, can we hope to have economic stability without stifling national growth? Yes, we can! So say 64 representatives of education, labor, business and government who met recently at the American Assembly. They agreed that America needs all three: dynamic growth . . . low unemployment . . . reasonably stable prices. But to assure this, we must all strive together for these goals and must achieve a steady rise in productivity.

You'll want to know more about America's economic future. After all, it vitally affects your future, your savings, your pension. Write today for free booklet, "Prices, Growth and You," to: American Assembly, Columbia University, New York 27, N. Y.

Hoopes-Oesch Vows Heard At Berlin Center Church

The marriage of Mrs. Sue Ella Hoopes of RD 2, Salem, and Eugene Oesch of Berlin Center took place Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Berlin Center Methodist Church. The Rev. Dale Wagner officiated at the double ring ceremony. Fern baskets of white gladioli and tapers in candelabra enhanced the altar setting.

Mrs. C. H. Weidenmier presided at the organ.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Heston of Westville Lake. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Jerd Oesch of Berlin Center and the late Mr. Oesch.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beige lace street leigh gown styled with a scoop neck, three-quarter length sleeves and a full skirt. Her net headpiece was adorned with rose buds, and her wedding bouquet contained white carnations edged with green.

Miss Lucille Oesch, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a mint green silk sheath with matching net headpiece and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Peggy Sue Hoopes and Jeffrey John Hoopes, the bride's children, served as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Peggy Sue wore a white nylon dress lined with yellow taffeta, and she carried yellow carnations and scattered yellow rose petals.

Stanley Clark of Girard was best man. Robert Herold, Bill Carnes and Bill Stanley, all of Beloit, and Dr. Floyd Stanley of Salem ushered.

Mrs. Heston wore a light green shantung suit with beige and black accessories, while Mrs. Oesch wore a light blue wool suit with navy and white accessories. Both complemented their attire with corsages of yellow roses.

Reception Is Held

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church for the 300 guests.

The refreshment table was laid with a pink satin cloth and gold and crystal service. The centerpiece was fashioned of pink and white carnations, and the four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom figurine.

Miss Rachel Oesch, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the cake. She was assisted by Mrs. Wendell Stanley, Mrs. Delmar Court, Mrs. Earl Bardo, Mrs. Curtis Mother, Miss Russell Oesch, Miss Susan Stanley, all of Damascus.

Mrs. Kenneth Heston of RD 1, Salem and Mrs. Richard Hoopes of Westville presided at the gift table.

Mrs. David Smith of Westville registered the guests from Damascus, Beloit, Salem, Sebring, Kent, Randolph, Burton, Alliance, Westberg, Warren, Girard Detroit Mich. and Buffalo N.Y.

The bride, a graduate of Beloit High School, and the bridegroom, a graduate of Berlin Center High School, both attended Kent State University. Mr. Oesch, who is engaged in dairy farming, also is a licensed auctioneer, and he served two years in the army.

For traveling to Florida, the honeymoon destination, the bride chose a gray wool suit with patent accessories, and she wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside at Berlin Center.

Mrs. Oesch entertained members of her son's wedding party following rehearsal Saturday night at the church.

The Social Notebook

A SURPRISE slumber party honored Miss Sandy Herbert in celebration of her 17th birthday Friday night in the home of Miss Darlene Luce of W. 9th St.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with a large birthday cake surrounded by swan filled with miniature Easter eggs. The honoree received gifts.

Also attending the party were the Misses Sydney Johnson, Kathy Harris, Diane Mackey, Sue Bair and Peggy Overholt.

DAUGHTERS OF Union Veterans will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Knights of Pythias Hall.

Plans for the department convention will be made, and other important items will be discussed at the business session.

THE BEREAN Class of the First Friends Church will meet Wednesday evening at 8 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Howells of Wooddale Road.

Alliance Girl Engaged To Gary Centofanti

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Delores J. Rallo of 1234 S. Meadow St., Alliance, and Gary M. Centofanti of Salem.

Miss Rallo is a daughter of Mrs. Lena Adams of Alliance. Mr. Centofanti is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rice of E. 5th St.

The bride-elect is employed by the Alliance Manufacturing Co., and her fiancé is an employee of the Cooper Industries of Canfield.

A wedding date has not been set.

Damascus Ruritan Speaker

Ray Henry of North Benton, who last year traveled from London to Brighton Run, England, in his 1903 Oldsmobile, will be guest speaker at the Damascus Ruritan Club meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Damascus Methodist Church. (Mr. and Mrs. Henry are shown above as they prepared to drive away in their antique car in England after disembarking from their ship). Mr. Henry will show colored slides of antique cars and the famous Glidden auto tours when he talks to the Damascus Ruritans.

Aims, Achievements Traced When Sorority Chapter Meets

The purpose and achievements of Xi Gamma Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority were traced in a recent meeting of the Thomas Williams of Albany Road. Mrs. Vesta King, honorary member, was welcomed by the 23 in attendance.

Mrs. Sherman Myers, president, conducted the business session. A surprise written quiz over the sorority manual was given to all members of the chapter by Mrs. Harold Whitcomb, program chairman.

Activities of the chapter since its formation in the fall of 1953 were reviewed by Mrs. Clifford Ayers, secretary. Included were the number of members each year, name of president, type of program studied, how funds were raised and what projects were carried out, highlights of social events and other items of interest.

A report containing the recommendations of the retiring executive board concluded the business meeting.

The program was in two parts. "High Moments of Love and Faith," was presented by Mrs. Orville Ripley. She expressed the idea that love is beautiful, full of magic, a feeling of rapture, whether it be that of husband and wife, parent and child, brother and sister, or true friendship. She quoted author David Link as saying "Faith is an attitude, a readiness to act with intuitive confidence even when only one step ahead is visible."

The reason so many people never get "large" results is that they think "small" all the time, Mrs. Ripley said, adding that "The secret of life is to think big, believe big, pray big, act big, hope big and then big results will come."

Mrs. Myers gave a talk on "High Moments of History." Progressing from world history to United States history down through the ages to the present time, she related memorable incidents in her own life during World War II and brought things up to the present by citing the progress being made in science, particularly in the field of electronics. She said "History is in the making currently as we send our satellites into space." She closed with the warning, "Social progress must keep pace with science if we wish our future years to be those of peace, freedom and happiness."

Lunch was served from a white linen covered buffet table by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Sanford Metz and Mrs. Donald Santee. Arrangements of daffodils were featured in the decorations.

The next meeting will be in the Ruth Smucker House April 7 at 8:30 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Limestahl and Mrs. Charles Trotter.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: If you can come up with an answer to this, you're a genius.

We've been married 15 years and have four healthy, normal, noisy, shoe-tearing children. I'm 42—not exactly a candidate for Mrs. America but I'm no spook either.

My husband simply will NOT come home from work like other men. He always has to stop off at a bar near his office and have a few drinks and visit with "the boys." Some of these visits last three hours. When he finally remembers he has a home, the dinner is burned, or cold; he's "feeling good" and I'm feeling lousy. What do you suggest, Ann Landers?—LAST-DITCH STAND.

Dear Last Ditch: I'd like to ask a question of you, as well as the thousands of wives who have complained since time immemorial about this same problem. What does your husband find at home when he gets there?

Is home a place where he can enjoy peace and comfort? Is it a haven where he can find rest, love and contentment? Or is home a new battlefield every night? Do you greet your husband with a list of complaints, a fistful of unpaid bills and a standard dinner of whatever was easiest to throw together?

When a husband stops off at a bar every night after work it's an admission that he must fortify himself with a little bottled "courage" to face the wrecking crew at home. It also means he's putting off going home as long as possible.

The wife sets the thermostat which regulates the emotional climate of the home. If she makes it a warm and comfortable place, the bars will be a lot less crowded between 5 and 9, because husbands will go home after work—where they belong.

Suburban Living

Dear Ann: We recently bought a lovely home in a fine suburb. I've never had trouble with a neighbor in all my life—until now.

The woman next door insists on shaking her rugs and mop out her bedroom windows. These windows face my kitchen and I get all her dirt. I knew people did this in the tenement districts but I didn't think upper-class suburbanites behaved this way.

She knows she's doing wrong because whenever she sees me she stops at once. I've hinted strongly by making a show of shaking my rugs and mop behind the garage. It hasn't helped. What do I do now?—J.P.M.

Dear J.P.M.: Stop playing games and tell her this: "Apparently you're going to continue to shake your rugs and mop out your bedroom windows even though you know the dirt goes into my kitchen. If you'll be good enough to give me a moment's notice so I can close my windows, I'd be very grateful."

Saving Face

Dear Ann: I know a woman who brags that her 16-year-old daughter is so meticulous that it takes her one solid hour to put on her makeup and comb her hair in preparation for a date. This is disgusting, in my opinion, but I can't tell you exactly why I feel so strongly.

Will you please tell me what it means, when a young girl spends so much time before a mirror?—OFFENDED.

Dear Offended: Any person who spends so much time on the outside of her head doesn't have

Former Veterans' Affairs Head Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, retired, who headed the government's veterans' affairs activities almost 22½ years—longer than any other man—died Sunday. He would have been 81 next Monday.

A son, Frank T. Hines Jr., today said his father had suffered a stroke nearly 10 years ago but continued some business activity until recently.

The general suffered a fall and entered the Mt. Alto Veterans Administration Hospital here about two weeks ago, the son said.

The hospital listed the cause of death as bronchial pneumonia.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at Ft. Myer Chapel, in nearby Arlington, Va. Interment will follow in Arlington National Cemetery.

Hines is regarded as having been the first director of the Veterans Bureau. His activities prior to his appointment in 1923 had been directed most of the time by as many as three men serving contemporaneously as it evolved from the World War I Bureau of War Risk Insurance into the Veterans Bureau.

When the Veterans Administration succeeded the Veterans Bureau in 1930, Hines became the first administrator and served until Aug. 15, 1945.

Home Economics Program Draws 50

Fifty students and members of the Columbiana County Home Economics Association attended the annual tea meeting Sunday afternoon in the Salem High School student lounge, according to Miss Julia Shank, county extension agent in home economics.

Mrs. J. Teschendorf, home economics department head at Hiram College, was the guest speaker.

A college girls fashion show was presented by Strouss - Hirschberg Store. A Hawaiian theme was used throughout the program.

Milligan College Choir Program Is Enjoyed

A capacity crowd attended the concert presented in the First Christian Church Sunday evening by the Milligan (Tenn.) College Choir.

The choir, directed by Richard Tappa, presented a varied program which included solos and trio and quartet numbers. Miss Janie Godard of Salem, who will graduate next month from Milligan, sang with one of the trios. Choir members were entertained afterwards in the church fellowship hall.

County Health League To Meet Wednesday

LISBON — William Morgan, professor of organic chemistry at Mt. Union College, will be the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Columbiana County Public Health League Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Wick Hotel. Approximately 50 persons are expected to attend.

Morgan, who has devoted more than 30 years to the fight against tuberculosis, is a past president of the National Tuberculosis Assn., the Ohio TB and Health Assn., and the Stark County TB and Health Assn.

Nomination of officers, financial statement, the revision committee's report on the constitution and adoption of by-laws, report of Christmas seal sale, and a yearly report of the representative director, will be the main items on the agenda.

CHURCH BOARD ELECTED

EAST PALESTINE — Three new trustees, 22 new stewards and committee members were elected when the Methodist Church held its fourth quarterly conference Sunday.

The new trustees are William Herriott, John Wilhelm and Mrs. Joseph Adamson. The report of the church school, with an average attendance of over 400, was second only to Salem in the Steubenville District.

was expected to run into the millions of dollars.

The Big Sioux River in South Dakota and the Skung in Iowa were causing trouble. The big Missouri River continued its slow climb in northwest Missouri and northeast Kansas.

The Big Sioux flooded thousands of acres from Elk Point, S.D., to Sioux City, Iowa, forcing some 700 persons to leave their homes in North Sioux City, S.D. The Skung River continued to threaten weakened dikes near Burlington, in southeast Iowa.

His backers insist he has picked up momentum in the past few days. Neutral observers tend to agree.

But no one knows whether he has gained enough to offset Kennedy's early lead.

In the clash and clutter of all this duelling on the Democratic side, the outlook for Vice President Richard M. Nixon in Tuesday's primary has been largely overlooked.

Nixon is unopposed in the Republican primary.

Knox School Speller Chosen For Contest

Miss Karen Ellsworth, in a recent spelloff of room champions, eliminated all other contestants and became Knox School champion.

Miss Kay Barnes, last year's champion, was runner-up. She will serve as alternate for the contest when Mahoning County champions compete in Youngstown May 7.

Miss Ellsworth was required to spell "appendix," which Miss Barnes had missed, and then spell "appendicitis," which she spelled correctly. Miss Martha Halma was third place winner.

It took 23 rounds to determine the school champion, with a total of approximately 800 words used.

Mrs. Vada Kizmiiler served as recorder. Mrs. Dorothy Ludwig and Miss Teresa Pandin of Kent State University were judges. John Pickens, principal of Knox School, was pronouncer.

Miss Ellsworth is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellsworth of RD 5, Alliance. Miss Barnes is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnes of RD 1, Salem. Miss Halma is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Helmagy of Homeworth.

Both lashed out against it on the TV programs.

About 30 per cent of the voters in Wisconsin are Catholics.

The state law permits a voter to ballot for either a Republican or Democratic candidate.

The second great imponderable in the battle as it stands now is the extent to which Humphrey's campaign has caught on with the voters.

United Invitational Cage Tournament To Open Tonight

10 of 26-Team Field to Play

Youngstown Squad, Akron Joe's Favored

The United Invitational Basketball Tournament will get underway tonight at Hanoverton with 10 of the 26-team field slated to see action.

Several of the teams have loaded up with top high school and college talent from the area.

One of the pre-tournament favorites is the Youngstown Snacks, which features present and ex-Youngstown University players.

East Liverpool Wheatley Furniture is composed of Steubenville College stars — Jack Blanda, Dick Quiring, Jim Hease and Dick Mayner.

RATED THE BEST chance of taking all the marbles is Akron Joe's All-Stars. This is the Akron Goodyear team plus Jim Darrow, one of the top collegiate scorers in the country this season while playing for Bowling Green.

Grady's Restaurant has put together top players from Geneva and Westminster Colleges and Wampum, Pa., High School. Herron Transfer of Salem was City Class A champion this season. The Truckers added several other standouts for the tournament grid, including Bill Pauline of Michigan State and Dave Hunter, Salem High's second team All - Ohio guard.

Bevo Francis, the man who put Rio Grande College on the basketball map several seasons ago, will lead a Freed and Hays quintet into the United tourney. This squad also includes Miles Witchey, Vince Giles and Dan Baldwin.

OPENING THE TOURNEY at 6:30 tonight at the United High School Gym will be Mark's Landing and Manfull Sohio of Kensington. At 7:15, Pete's Cafe of Wellsville will tangle with the Alliance Independents.

The Beaver Local Faculty will meet Theron's I.G.A. of New Waterford at 8:15. Wellsville Grafton Motor Sales will face Minerva Harsh Billiards at 9:15.

In the fifth and final game of the evening at 10:15, East Liverpool Wheatley Furniture will clash with Girard Ragozine Cleaners.

Action will continue each night this week. The finals are slated for Saturday.

Tuesday's schedule is as follows:

6:15, Sebring Hoopes Confectionery vs Canton Catholic Youth Council.

7:15, Magnolia Whitacre - Greer vs Alliance Armours.

8:15, East Liverpool's Lee's Market vs Youngstown Snacks.

9:15, Beaver Cornecki A.C. vs Canton Shelley's Speed Queen.

10:15, Salem Davidson Sales & Service vs Columbiana Buy-Rite.

Azalea Golf Tourny Won By Niepote

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — Tom Niepote bundled his wife and their three small children into his station wagon this morning and headed for Bronville, N. Y., $2,000 richer after winning the Azalea Open Golf Tournament Sunday. His 277 for 72 holes beat Gay Brewer of Crystal River, Fla., by two shots.

Meanwhile, many of his fellow touring golf professionals headed for Augusta, Ga., and the Masters Tournament opening Thursday.

Niepote didn't get an invitation to the blue ribbon event. He's won only one other major event in his six years as a pro. That was at Akron, Ohio, last summer.

Starting the $15,000 Azalea event he was 41st on the latest PGA official money list for the year with $2,700 in earnings.

Niepote, the leader after each round, had scores of 64-68-72-73, 11 under par for 72 holes around the 6,800-yard Cape Fear Country Club course.

Brewer had rounds of 67-71-71-70 for 279, worth $1,500.

Don Whit of Borrego Springs, Calif., tied Dow Finsterwald, of Tequesta, Fla., for third place at 281.

Ohio U. Golf Team Defends Championship

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — Firing an aggregate of 949, Ohio University's six-man team successfully defended its championship Sunday in the Greenbrier Intercollegiate Golf Tournament. The Bobcats finished 14 strokes ahead of the field.

Washington & Lee was second with 963 for the 36 holes of medal play over Greenbrier's par 70 old White course.

Davidson was third with 968, followed by Virginia with 974; George Washington 980, Colgate 986, West Virginia 1,011 and Denison 1,027.

Ohio U's Larry Snyder was runner-up for medalist honors with 151, two strokes behind the leader, John Vardaman of W & L.

Other Ohio U. scores included Charley Vandik 153, Dow Richley 156, Billy Santor 163, Ed Gordon 169 and Ed Bryant 167.

Robertson, West Head U.S. Olympic Basketball Squad

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — All-America Oscar Robertson and Jerry West head a brilliant cast of seven collegians anchoring the U.S. Olympic basketball team that will play in Rome this summer under the command of Coach Pete Newell of California.

The college stars for the first time shined aside veteran AAU players to dominate the 12-member team chosen Sunday by the Olympic Basketball Committee. The selections followed the three-day trials here climaxed by the NCAA University all-stars' 124-97 conquest of Peoria's AAU champions in Saturday night's finals before 10,000 fans.

The victory earned the NCAA team six Olympic berths and won for Newell, their 44-year-old towel-chewing coach, the honor of directing the team in the Olympic competition. He'll be assisted by Peoria's Warren Womble, who coached the 1952 Olympic champions.

West, 6-3 Comet from Cabin Creek, W. Va., riddled Peoria with a 39-point burst, 24 in the first half, to set an individual high for the trials. Robertson, incomparable playmaker and collegiate scoring leader from Cincinnati, poured in 20 points to take scoring honors for the tryouts. He totaled 72 and West, a senior at West Virginia, was runnerup with 65 in three games.

Also picked from the NCAA team were two 6-foot-11 defensive stars, All-America Darrall Imhoff of California, and Walt Belamy of Indiana; Purdue's 6-6 sophomore Terry Dischinger, who led the Big Ten in scoring, and Texas' 6-2 back court artist, Jay Arnette.

All-America Jerry Lucas, 6-8 sophomore star of Ohio State's NCAA champions, is the seventh collegian picked from the field of 96 players.

The four AAU stars named to the team include the only repeater from 1956, Burdick Halderson, 6-8 leading scorer for Bartlesville's (Okla.). The others are 6-8 Bob Boozer and 6-foot Allen Kelley, both of Peoria, and Les Lane, Bartlesville.

Adrian Smith, 6-1 former Kentucky ace, was chosen from the armed forces all-stars.

Larry Siegfried and John Havlicek, Ohio State; Jim Darrow, Bowling Green; John Cox, Chuck Slack and Dick Boushka, Akron AAU; Jack Adams, Don Ohl and Carroll Williams, Peoria; Wayne Hightower, Kansas; Porter Merriweather, Tennessee A & I, and John Sullivan, Armed Forces.

Siegfried scored 23 points Saturday as Ohio State copped fifth place in the trials by trouncing Bartlesville 87 - 77. Mel Nowell scored 18 and Lucas 17 as the Buckeyes overcame a 43-40 halftime deficit with eight quick points at the start of the second half and turned it into a romp. Lucas garnered 17 rebounds for a three-game total here of 58 grabs, 21 more than anyone else in the tourney.

Akron beat the NAIA All-Stars 88-77 for third place while the Armed Forces salvaged seventh by turning back the NCAA "No. 2" All-Star unit 98-95.

Beman, the British Amateur champ from Silver Springs, Md., finished one over par, and PGA winner Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., wound up two over.

Inter-City Bowling Prizes Awarded

The 31st Annual Inter-City Women's Bowling tournament closed here yesterday with $7,420 going to winners among the 274 teams and 1,370 bowlers who participated. The competition was staged at the Timberlanes.

The final week saw little change in the standings with the exception of the doubles handicap where six new pairs turned up in the field of 10 top places. In Team handicap, only one new team broke into the circle, and one bowler each in the singles handicap and the all events.

Nieder to Vie In Eastern Relays

Snapped Shotput Record Saturday

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — That well known trencherman, Bill Nieder, who stands on top of the world in the realm of the shotputters, looked toward a clash with the others of the big four today.

Nieder, who's throw of the 16-pound ball almost cleared the 6 foot barrier at the Texas Relays shot put area Saturday — it went 65 feet 7 inches to better the world's record by 2 feet and 5 inches — plans to compete in the Eastern Relays at Santa Barbara, Calif., April 16.

He expects he'll face Parry O'Brien, who holds the listed record of 63 feet 2 inches and has exceeded 64 feet; Dallas Long, who has thrown the shot 64 feet 6 1/4 inches, and Dave Davis, who has flipped the steel ball 63 feet 10 1/4 inches.

Nieder, the former Kansas University track star who was second to O'Brien in the 1956 Olympic Games, left Sunday for San Francisco, where he is an Army lieutenant.

During the Texas Relays Nieder who was using a shot borrowed from the University of Texas because his own was being repaired, complained of being hungry. But he wasn't hungry enough to be distracted from the task at hand.

His first throw almost reached the little wall that bordered the shot put area. And that was the one that Texas Relays officials will submit for a world's record. They think there's little doubt but that it will be accepted. The area was surveyed, Nieder had three competitors, the wind was blowing across the area and the shot was weighed and found to be a half-ounce over 16 pounds.

Also picked from the NCAA team were two 6-foot-11 defensive stars, All-America Darrall Imhoff of California, and Walt Belamy of Indiana; Purdue's 6-6 sophomore Terry Dischinger, who led the Big Ten in scoring, and Texas' 6-2 back court artist, Jay Arnette.

Georgienne Eakins of Warren who took over the top spot in the All-Events a week ago garnered final honors in that category with 1,625 actual pins. Ethel Bricker was high from the Salem area in this department, taking fourth place with 1,585 actual pins.

In the Singles Handicap, Harriet Greenholtz of Elyria had high actual pins with 635 and also had high total with 749, including a 114 pin handicap. However, rules do not permit her to take both awards so high total went to Jackie Webster of Painesville with 711. Jane Royle of Salem was 6th with 665.

Doubles prizes went to Selma Fritz and Evelyn Schue of Elyria with a total of 1,283 pins. No Salem area bowlers were in the top 10 in the doubles place.

Bixlers of Fremont was the only team to clear the 3,000 pin total in the team handicap, getting 3,026 to take honors there. The J and E Record Shop of Columbiana and Konnerth's Jewelry of Salem were second and third, respectively, with 2,997 and 2,988 pins. Holding down fifth and sixth places were Select Dairy and Town Tavern, both of Salem, and Gray Motor Sales, Salem.

Hughes Electric of Washingtonville ended up in 10th. Actual high pin total went to El Rio of Warren in the Team Event with 2,561 pins. The team ended up in fourth place. Actual high pins in the Doubles Handicap were Colette Settinger and Joyce Gildenmeister of Elyria with 1,078. The pair did not place in the top 10 on totals, however.

Yanks Defeated By Cards 6-3

Braves, Red Sox, Orioles Winners

By The Associated Press
The National League clubs start thinking ahead today to the earliest season openers in the history of major league baseball's senior circuit.

With regular season operations getting under way a week from Tuesday, many of the teams broke camp and began the northward trek with the surprising St. Louis Cardinals clinging to the top of the exhibition standings with a 13-7 record.

Getting a second consecutive route-going performance from Ron Kline, the Cardinals concluded their Florida phase of training Sunday by defeating the New York Yankees 6-3.

Kline, acquired in a trade with Pittsburgh, scattered 10 hits and now has allowed only four runs — two earned — in 28 innings.

Milwaukee's Bob Buhl also went the distance, holding Washington to four hits in the Braves' 3-2 victory while Detroit's Hank Aguirre pitched a six-inning effort for a 1-0 victory over Pittsburgh in a game shortened by rain.

In other day games, San Francisco blasted the Chicago Cubs 14-9, Baltimore beat Kansas City 5-2, Boston edged Cleveland 5-4 in 10 innings, and Los Angeles and Cincinnati were tied 4-4 when a downpour ended their game in the eighth inning.

In a night game, the Chicago White Sox and Philadelphia wound up their three-game series in Puerto Rico with Chicago winning 4-2. The Phils took the first two.

225 Attend Booster Banquet

Leetonia Athletic Squads Are Feted

Leetonia High School athletic squads were feted at the First Annual All Sports Banquet held Saturday night at Orchard Hill School.

Approximately 225 athletes and guests attended the banquet which was sponsored by the Leetonia Boosters Club.

Eddie Finnigan, athletic director and coach at Western Reserve University, was the main speaker. His topic was "What Champions Are Made Of."

Finnigan listed four attributes which will be found in every champion. They are spiritual soundness, courage, excellence, and respect. He pointed out these attributes by relating unusual stories about Lou Groza, Harrison Dillard, Rafer Johnson and Elroy Hirsch.

Football Coach Pat Mancuso presented varsity letters to seniors T. Baker, J. Dattilio, B. Hinchliffe, L. Keagy, B. Little, D. Macry, C. Stecker, T. Tilley and M. Wilms; juniors, B. Gullett, V. Marshall, D. Pirigyi, J. Sevensch and J. Stelts; sophomores G. Falzetta, J. Gallo, G. King, J. Less, E. Painter and R. Troy; and freshmen P. Conrad.

Reserve football awards were given out by Asst. Coach Frank Burns. Winning these awards were juniors G. Cole, J. Fraser and B. Scullion; sophomores J. Altman, D. Dattilio, K. Morris, J. Morrissey, B. Snyder, R. Ward and D. Wilkinson; and freshmen D. Ferry, F. Guerrier and S. Vrabel.

Bob Hinchliffe and Dave Macry won special football awards. Hinchliffe was picked up by the Leetonia backfield as the most valuable lineman. Macry, a speedy little halfback, was selected by his teammates as the most valuable player. Both received trophies.

BASKETBALL AWARDS were made by Head Coach Len Batcha. Members of the 1959-60 cage squad honored were seniors L. Holloway, L. Radler and T. Tilley; juniors R. Barkholder, J. Franko, P. Gullett, B. Scullion and J. Stelts.

Hawks Score 106-96 Win Over Celtics

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Hawks turned Boston's favorite weapons — ball stealing and home-run passes — against the Celtics and squared pro basketball's world series, but the Celtics believe it's their turn to bounce back.

"I never saw us steal the ball so much from the Celtics," said Hawks owner Ben Kerner. "This is what they do to us too often." Kerner was happy over the Hawks inspired, aggressive effort Sunday in a 106-96 victory which tied the National Basketball Assn. title series at 2-2. The scene shifts to the Boston Garden Tuesday night for the key fifth game in the best-of-four-of-seven series for a $17,000 jackpot.

"We'll come back, don't worry," said Boston Coach Red Auerbach. "But they (the officials) are going to have to stop the rough stuff. This was a mighty rough game." "Clyde Lovellette is murdering Bill Russell. The officials call a couple and then, when (Hawk Coach Ed) Macauley complains, they stop."

Russell, the Celtics 6-foot-10 pivot, played all 48 minutes for the second time in two days and was a prime target for the hustling Hawks. Lovellette got plenty of help as the Hawks battled Russell and got the ball away from him several times.

"I can't out-jump Russell," Clyde said. "I just kept battling the ball up in the air. I knew if we could keep the ball up, (Bob) Pettit would grab it sooner or later."

As in last week's St. Louis victory, Pettit was the big scorer. He made 23 of his 32 points in the last half.

Merchants Plan to Counteract Threatened Negro Boycott

By The Associated Press

Merchants moved swiftly today to counteract a threatened boycott by integration-seeking Negroes in one Texas city while a proposal for the mass withdrawal of students at a Louisiana university appeared to be losing ground.

At Greensboro, N.C., where sit-down demonstrations began Feb. 1, a Negro leader said students have set their elders an example. He urged adults to stop "sitting on the sidelines wringing your hands."

Merchants at Marshall, Tex., called a meeting Tuesday night to talk about "the situation that confronts us." One unidentified merchant said the possibility of an economic boycott against Negroes might be discussed.

Negroes last week threatened boycott of local stores after more than 70 were arrested for integration demonstrations, lunch counter sit-ins, and picketing. All have been released on bond.

Courthouse Square Merchants admitted their business was off sharply Saturday. Marshall is a city of about 30,000 that takes pride in its old South traditions.

At Baton Rouge, La., J. J. Hedgemon, dean of registration at all-Negro Southern University said less than 200 students had left. The registration office was opened Sunday to permit withdrawals.

Student leaders originally asked the entire student body of about 5,000 to withdraw because of the arrest of nine students in connection with sit-in demonstrations protesting segregated lunch counters.

Thurgood Marshall, chief attorney of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, told 1,000 Negroes attending a meeting at Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C., that "the world will never condone oppression of minorities."

He said business firms catering to the general public are not private property. If the owners maintain they are private, the Negro should "make it private. Close it up," he said.

Students representing 17 colleges and universities in seven states recommended a South-wide organization for promoting the sit-in movement and urged extended picketing and boycotting. They were attending a college workshop at interracial Highlander Folk School at Monteagle, Tenn.

Practice Words for Spellers

Here is another in a series of word lists which The News will publish from time to time to assist spellers as they prepare for the bees here and in other district school systems. Boy, Cub Scout Activities

Scout Troop 2

Two movies, "Survival After an Atom Attack" and "Danger is Your Companion," were shown at a recent meeting of Troop 2 in the church.

The movies were shown in connection with the program theme of the month, "Training for Trouble," and other troops in the city were invited to attend. There were 70 present.

Water Hendricks, scoutmaster, conducted the meeting.

Leaders of the group met after the program at the home of Charles Wiggers of Ridgewood Drive for a planning session. There will be a four-week course in first aid under the direction of Richard McArthur and the troop will plant nuts on area farms this month as a conservation of nuts project. Work will soon start on the clean-up in preparation of planting pine trees at the Home for Aged Women.

Cub Pack 2

Max Gard of Lisbon was guest speaker at a recent meeting of Pack 2 at the First Methodist Church. Cubmaster Carl Sheen was in charge.

Mr. Gard talked on the subject, "Exploring Columbiana County," and he displayed a number of fossils.

The opening flag ceremony was given by the Webelos Den. The 100 per cent attendance flag was awarded to Den 3.

Robert Sanders talked to the parents about the possibility of the boys camping for a week at Leesville. All fathers who can accompany their sons are asked to notify the den mothers immediately so that reservations may be made.

Den 3 presented a skit, "Bedlam at the Capitol." Announcer, Eddie Peters and chairman, Larry Davis, were assisted by Richard Boyle, Charles Newman, Gary Eyster, David Gopp, Charles Price, Ralph Gabriel, Tommy Rayle and Tommy Lantz.

Awards issued by James Shasteen, assistant cub master, were presented by Mr. Sheen to the following boys:

Wolf rank — David Shasteen, badge; Benjamin Kupka, badge and one gold arrow; Jim Weber, one gold arrow; Glen Clayton, one gold arrow; Vernon Sproat, one gold and one silver arrow; Charles Newman, one gold arrow; Gary Eyster, one silver arrow; Tommy Lantz, two silver arrows; Richard Boyle, one silver arrow; Jon Andrei, one silver arrow; Bobby Saeen, one silver arrow; Val Altomare, one silver arrow; Don Carlisle, one silver arrow;

Lion rank — Kenneth Hahn, badge; Randy Keefe, one gold arrow; Richard Melitschka, one gold arrow; Rickie Kibbreath, two silver arrows;

Webelos arrow of light — Dwight Bliman, who also was graduated into Scout Troop 2; denner stripe, Randy Babb;

One year pins, Larry Davis, Bobby Sheen, Val Altomare; bear books, David Gopp, Larry Davis, Gary Eyster, Don Carlisle; Lion book, Charles Price.

In closing, the cubs repeated the Cub Scout Promise.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of cubs in Den 1, and serving on the clean-up committee were cubs of Den 2.

Teachers' Association Workshop Set April 30

The East Central Ohio Teachers' Association, continuing its study influence upon education in the six-county area, has scheduled a workshop, "Teaching Reading in Grades 7-10," at Perry High School on Genoa Road at 13th Street S.E. in Massillon, Saturday, April 30, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Reservations for the workshop are to be limited to 300 teachers, and are to be returned to William F. Quinn, E.C.O.T.A. executive secretary, Garfield School in Canton, on or before Friday.

Main speaker of the day will be Dr. Martha Gesling Weber, professor of education and director of the Bowling Green State University Reading Center.

Teachers will divide into 12 discussion groups under the leadership of college and university consultants.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

No spot in Michigan is more than 85 miles from one of the Great Lakes.

Canton Reformatory Escapee Surrenders

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP)—Larry Earl Rodman, 24, of Canton, a trusty who Sunday night walked away from the Mansfield Reformatory camp here, surrendered to police at a South Amherst road block early today.

Rodman's arrest followed a chase on Ohio 61 by state highway patrolmen at a 100 m.p.h. speeds. The chase started in Norwalk, where the patrol spotted Rodman late Sunday night.

Police said Rodman was driving a car owned by Douglas Ludvig of Norwalk, whom Rodman met at a tavern near Berlinville. Ludvig reportedly offered to drive Rodman to Lorain, but Ludvig changed his mind en route and headed for Norwalk. Before they reached Norwalk, Ludvig said, Rodman demanded the wheel, threatening Ludvig with something that felt like a knife.

Ludvig said he managed to escape as they were changing seats in the car.

erie County Sheriff Alton Young said less than a half-hour after Rodman was reported missing a report came in from Leland Perry, who runs a bowling alley and tavern near the honor camp, that Perry's 1957 Cadillac was stolen. In the car were two 12-gauge shotguns and ammunition and a rifle. Perry said, explaining that he had been target-shooting earlier in the day.

Rodman was under sentence for unarmed robbery in Stark County and had been working as a hospital orderly.

Gen. MacArthur Leaves Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur is out of the hospital and says he feels fine.

MacArthur had a big smile for photographers Sunday as he left Lenox Hill Hospital accompanied by his wife, Jean.

"One of the most striking stories in the Bible is that of Lazarus, who was raised from the dead," he said. "I feel very much like a modern Lazarus, whose resurrection is due to the extraordinary skill of Dr. George W. Slaughter and his able assistants."

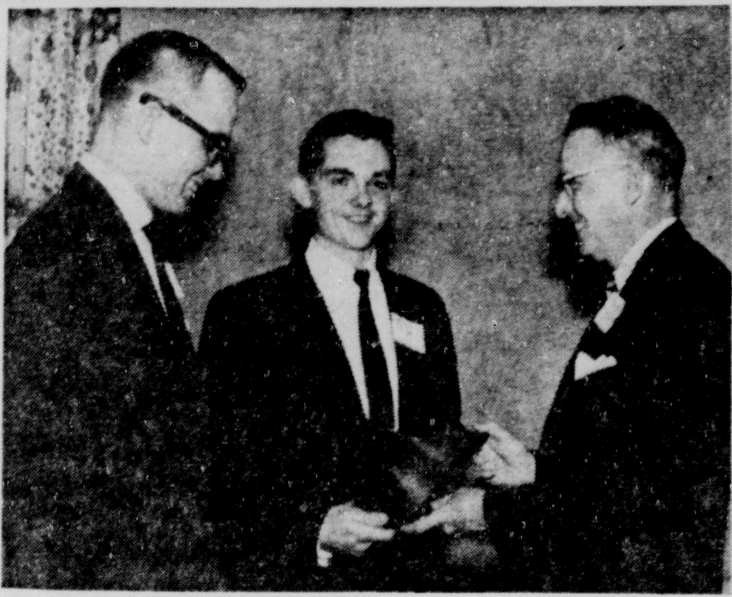

MacArthur, 80, entered the hospital Jan. 29 and underwent an operation March 19 for removal of his prostate gland.

4-H Club News
